

The Grady County History Museum is dedicated to the collection, preservation, and interpretation of historic artifacts, archives, and structures that tell the stories of our ancestors in Grady County and throughout the southeastern Gulf coastal plain.

(229) 377-5142 101 N. Broad St Cairo GA 39828

Deed of Gift

Donor

I/We wish that the gift be identified to the public and in the records of the Society as

The property listed below is owned by me (or I legally represent the owner) and is hereby given to the Grady County Historical Society, Inc. is an unrestricted gift. I agree to the conditions governing this gift which are specified on the back of this form.

Description of Property

Conditions of Gift

This donation agreement is between the Grady County Historical Society, Inc. (GCHS) and the donor listed on the front of this Deed of Gift (Donor). GCHS is an historical organization established to preserve, interpret, and display the materials of the GCHS, offering ways to explore the people and events that have made the area what it is today. The items accepted become the property of GCHS for the advancement of its purpose to inspire people to bring together those people interested in history, and especially in the history of Grady County. Donation of the property listed on this form is subject to the following conditions. All items accepted by GCHS become the property of GCHS.

- 1 This gift is made without restriction including display, preservation, retention, or disposition of the property involved, either now or in the future.
- 2 The Donor gives, donates, and conveys absolutely, irrevocably, and without any condition whatsoever to the GCHS the property described on this Deed of Gift as an unrestricted gift, free and unencumbered, included the transfer of all legal title, copyright and trademark, literary property rights, and all other associated rights in so far as those rights reside in the Donor. The Donor represents and warrants that he/she owns all of the materials described on this Deed of Gift has good and complete right, title, and interest in said property, and has the unrestricted authority to give, donate, and convey such material to GCHS.
- 3 Should the GCHS determine the property in the future to have no permanent value or historical interest, or to be surplus to the needs of the GCHS, or which the GCHS cannot adequately house, it will be stated below whether materials are to be returned to the Donor or other named person. If no provision is made, the GCHS will use its discretion in disposing of unwanted materials.
- 4 The Donor understands that GCHS cannot provide valuations for donated property and that the location, retention, cataloging, and preservation of the property or other considerations relating to its use or disposition are in the sole discretion of GCHS.
- 5 Due to limited storage and exhibition space, GCHS cannot promise the permanent exhibition of any item.
- 6 GCHS is a nonprofit 501(c)(3) organization, and all gifts made to GCHS are tax-deductible within the limits of the law.

Description of Property and Other Information

(continued if needed)
